| 19 | I plan on and recommend to my friends and acquaintances to very carefully vote for only proven fiscally conservative Politicians, and to call and make their positions known. | Aug 3, 2010 3:37 AM |
| 20 | I recommend an "Impeach Obama" movement and get this communist out of the White House. | Aug 3, 2010 3:37 AM |
| 21 | Don't know a reasonable course. Stockpile dry goods and ammo. | Aug 3, 2010 3:38 AM |
| 22 | Refer them to articles like this one, and hope they don't cave in when things get really dicy, we've got 2.5 more yrs. of despair and Hell before there's any chance of undoing the damage-If this country is still intact. | Aug 3, 2010 3:40 AM |
| 23 | We must utilize the vote to render him politically impotent and permit an opportunity to impeach. | Aug 3, 2010 3:46 AM |
| 24 | I am preparing for the worst and praying for the best. Food, water, ammo. Or ammo, water, food. That has always been my recommendation to everyone I know. I also tell them not to be silent, speak up. | Aug 3, 2010 3:46 AM |
| 25 | Get educated and into powerful positions and be good at what you do. This way one has more say in the part of the game one is engaged in. Do not vote by party. Vote by individual. It is a one party system. Face it. McCain is a classic example of that. Judge them by their actions. McCain's actions are ones that are in agreement with the far left as are many of the other R's. There are some good Democrats. So vote for the individual not the party. I vote for and donate to who ever Ron Paul is endorsing. | Aug 3, 2010 3:47 AM |
| 26 | Vote them out, as weak as that option is it is the best single thing I can do. | Aug 3, 2010 3:50 AM |
| 27 | I don't have the wherewithall to "plan" more than a modicum of food storage and weaponry, but I advise people to prepare in those two ways to the extent they are able. Ultimately, I don't believe individual preparation is going to do it. We need the State governments to get involved and fight the federal monster, and be prepared to fight with force of arms, for I fear it will become necessary. All old folks like us can do is try to support the warriors with food and gear to the extent of our meager capability. | Aug 3, 2010 3:51 AM |
| 28 | Stay calm and cool until after the November elections. If nothing changes, then we the people will have to take to the streets and forceably remove this government from power. I often wonder whose side our Military will take. I can't imagine that they have too much respect for the Communist. | Aug 3, 2010 3:51 AM |
| 29 | Vote! Standup and be counted, and don't allow yourself to be intimidated by the jackbooted left. We can fight back twice as hard. We are on the right of all that is good about this great country. We are the majority and we need to use that. We need to protest. We need to march. We need to let all those fascists in Washington from both parties that we will not standby and let our beloved country be destroyed. We will fight back! | Aug 3, 2010 3:54 AM |
| 30 | Vote as many of the BASTARDS (as in overfed, corrupt, 'think were are better than our bosses (citizens), know better what is best for everyone because we are effete snobs) out of office. Voice our opinions, confront lies, refuse to accept false concepts (the cognitive distortion spread to confuse and misdirect the people) | Aug 3, 2010 3:56 AM |

| 31 | I am LEAVING. This year I began researching international business opportunities, and will potentially expatriate. At the least I will obtain a 2nd passport from a convenient jurisdiction. I love the things that our Constitution tried to protect. I love Liberty, Free Markets, and all the concepts of human equality. America (and not just the elite, but the red-blooded ohio farmboys too) has betrayed all of this. For DECADES our freedoms have been eroded, and nobody stood up. For DECADES our wealth has been squandered, stolen, and siphoned off into some abyss. And all the while, Americans rich and poor, republican and democrat stood around twiddling their thumbs. "It'll never happen here," they said. If someone tried to point out facts to them, they refused to listen, instead spouting or screaming their respective party line. Well, it has BEEN happening here. And it will CONTINUE to happen here. I don't believe that anything except Divine Intervention could stop it, and I just can't see why the Lord would bother to spit on this forsaken empire when it begins to go up in flames. | Aug 3, 2010 3:57 AM |
| 32 | 1) Sponsorship and support of the 28th Amendment to the Constitution 2) Get the Republicans to quit pandering to the religious right wing, quit trying to re-engineer the social structure. Gay have been around forever. Abortions have gone on forever and will continue to do so. People using drugs should be sentenced to making small rocks in a quarry with ball pein hammers and the sentence is up whenso many tons of gravel are produced. Prostitution in Sweden focuses on the users of the women, not the women themselves, 3) Quit calling the Democrats liberals. They are simply socialists, Communists, and radical muslims in many cases. 4) Citizenship as defined in the 14th Amendment needs to be understood, observed, and then followed to the letter, Anchor babies are not automatically granted citizenship. 5) Ariaona has it right. They must protect themselves since the US government will not do it. Other states must follow Arizona's lead if the government will not act. 6) The illegal immigrant is not about hispanics, but also muslims and asians. Our northern border is as porous as the southern border. | Aug 3, 2010 3:58 AM |
| 33 | Active support of local "Tea parties". Financial support of candidates who espouse limited government. | Aug 3, 2010 3:59 AM |
| 34 | I'm a rural survivalist with land, tools, multiple trades, stocks, fish, game, and normal survivalist stores and "anti-mob tools". I don't hire anybody to do anything for me, I do it ALL myself, but I have friends that are like me if one of us gets in a jam. Get geared up for unrest and keep your powder dry and weapons clean. If you live in a city instead of a rural location, I guess I'd say, you're probably screwed because you aren't gonna learn to be a country boy or a soldier very easily and you probably don't want to give up your urban lifestyle to live in a way where they might some day write about "your compound" in the press because the odds of an actual insurrection or TEOTWAKI are LOW. Make like minded friends and learn as many survival skills as you can. BUT, be careful of who you accept as friends. Stop worrying about the political process because it's no longer relevant in the short or long term. D.C. is going to do whatever they want, whether you like it or not, and not enough people know enough about anything to protest. | Aug 3, 2010 3:59 AM |
| 35 | Make your votes count on November 2, 2010. Object to every new step towards taking your Freedom away. Support and demand strict interpretation of the United States Constitution. Protect your right to Freedom of Speech, (the 1st Amendment), the right to Bear Arms, (the 2nd Amendment). Protest, Protest, Protest. Vote out the sympathizers of this shift of power from the people to government. Support the repeal of Obama Care; it will surely bankrupt our country. | Aug 3, 2010 4:00 AM |
| 36 | Try NOT to be under it when everything falls! | Aug 3, 2010 4:02 AM |

| 37 | Learn the truth. I've read a lot on the internet liberty sites always reading with a mindset to learn what was the foundational truth of the "truth's being written. Example: what is F.I.C.A.? Federal Insurance Contribution Act. In Law, contributions are gifts. Who is the primary beneficiary of FICA? Congress. Who are the "Indirect, beneficiaries.? The citizens of the CORPORATE UNITED STATES.. Are there contractual obligations to pay any money to the indirect beneficiaries? NO. THE 1ST STEP IS TO KNOW WHAT IS THE SOURCE, THE FOUNDATIONAL CAUSE OF OUR PROBLEMS. THAT SOURCE IS CONGRESS. BUT EXACTLY HOW DID THEY DO IT? FOR THAT YOU MUST READ: http://www.freedom-school.com/stuff/index.htm , "History Of The Problem" This is the foundation of Congressional Treachery, AND IT CONTINUES TO THIS DAY. | Aug 3, 2010 4:02 AM |
| 38 | It may be time to prepare for a new revolution. I, for one, do not wish to live in a Maoist dictatorship. | Aug 3, 2010 4:02 AM |
| 39 | Vote, it is the only none violent thing left to us. I do! However I believe an event or some contrived occurance will happen either before the mid elections or in 2012. He will postone the 2012 elections and make himself the almighty king. This does sound extreme but you would not have expected Bush to come up with the Patriot Act either. I am moving from the east coast to a western state where everyone has guns, uses guns, believes in the second amendment, and hates obama. God Bless the rest of you, you'll need it! I hate to run away but I want to live out the remaining years of my life as free as i can make it. If they come I'll be ready. If things go badly, the east coast is not going to be a place to be. | Aug 3, 2010 4:06 AM |
| 40 | Prepare for the coming storm. Gather food, water, meds, guns and ammo, but most of all maintain the resolve defend America and our homes and take as many of them with us as possible. I would gladly die defending the Constitution so that others may live free (again)... | Aug 3, 2010 4:07 AM |
| 41 | I have been very involved in the political front for some time, as a 9.12 member, county and state delegate and a firearms instructor. I am an outspoken supporter of the 2nd, and write letters to the editor, to my so-called representatives. Without the 2nd the rest is moot. I encourage others to get educated and armed and be ready. I hope, but not to optomistically that the Nov. elections will start turning things around but I'm not convinced. This country is worth fighting for...and I encourage others to understand and accept that. | Aug 3, 2010 4:07 AM |
| 42 | Action and preparedness with emphasis on high skills and capabilities. I am autonomous militia focused on being very effective in political activism by proper and legal participation in our Constitutional republic form of representative self-government while it lasts. Already I have participated in getting incumbents voted out of office both in local elections and by contributions to out of state campaigns in a rapidly growing movement that will continue to sweep our nation. I talk to the voters. I go door-to-door. To those in government in betrayal of their constituents and our Constitution and with loyalties to global governance and who realize their crime of treason, I offer my influence to favor their pardon should they switch early to our side or resign from their office and repent before they do more harm. | Aug 3, 2010 4:08 AM |
| 43 | Campaign to get states to assert their states rights and wage a war in court. When that fails, it's time to seceed and cut loose the millstone of liberal states that are destroying the country. | Aug 3, 2010 4:09 AM |
| 44 | I being a Patriot will do what I must to protect my family and friends. I will do my best to insure my children and grand children have the freedoms that our forefathers fought and died to give us. | Aug 3, 2010 4:12 AM |
| 45 | Tea party: A great start Vote incumbents out of office: Great intermediate solution to limit power In the long run, however, candidates must be found who actively fight collectivist tendencies and government growth. These candidates would actively pursue senate term limits, restrict tax hikes, and reduce government straightjacketing of the private sector and the industries. | Aug 3, 2010 4:12 AM |

| 46 | We will tighten our belts and ride out the storm. My advice is pay off your house and remain debt free. It's going to get worse before it gets better. | Aug 3, 2010 4:14 AM |
| 47 | Hunker down and keep my (gun)powder dry. | Aug 3, 2010 4:15 AM |
| 48 | I plan to talk to everyone I can and write as much as I can on Internet venues to explain what is going on. I also contribute to organizations that are fighting this, such as the JPFO. | Aug 3, 2010 4:16 AM |
| 49 | Get ready to take back our country by any and all means necessary | Aug 3, 2010 4:16 AM |
| 50 | None, who is John Galt? | Aug 3, 2010 4:17 AM |
| 51 | My course of plan in preparing for the potential failure of the US economy is to get out of debt and move over seas to an economy that is independent of Europe or the US. When the dust has settled, I will come back. | Aug 3, 2010 4:18 AM |
| 52 | I post stuff on my facebook all the time about the money flow in this country and where it is NOT going, or where it SHOULD NOT be going. I start debates all the time. I write the White House all the time and request a response, which I don't get. I write Congressman and say listen up to the people, get off the political monster machine. Mostly I recommend that people start learning to survive in place, it's coming to that too! | Aug 3, 2010 4:20 AM |
| 53 | We must never turn our backs on Israel. Our mediocre support of Israel must improve. If we stop supporting Israel our nation is doomed for certain. God promised Abraham that whoever blessed him, God would bless and whoever cursed Abraham, God would curse them. I don't think God will be slow to act on this promise. This is a promise for all time. We need to vote out all the baby killers, gun grabbers, and greedy politicians in this next election. Failure to do so will only continue the slide downhill to the eventual destruction of our nation. | Aug 3, 2010 4:20 AM |
| 54 | Make preparations now for a Revolution. Stockpile weapons and Ammunition, etc, for the time when those things are ruled unlawful to have and hold. Get out and vote - Republican. And pray that that party will come through as real Concertives. | Aug 3, 2010 4:22 AM |
| 55 | Write letters to our representatives and phone calls. | Aug 3, 2010 4:26 AM |
| 56 | Stay informed. Talk to other people about the problem. Resist the temptation to resort to any kind of violence and yes, trust the people we put in positions to represent us and recall them immediately if they do not. Keep up the pressure on the people that are "in" power, that we are "on" to their game and that is isn't going to work. Speak up and don't be afraid to do so. | Aug 3, 2010 4:27 AM |
| 57 | Be prepared! Write letters to our "Legislate WHORES" and hope for the best. Stock up on ALL necessary supplies. | Aug 3, 2010 4:29 AM |
| 58 | Hope for the best and plan for the worst. I fear that we are very close to the end of freedom as we have known it and the result won't be pretty. | Aug 3, 2010 4:29 AM |
| 59 | I cant comment | Aug 3, 2010 4:33 AM |
| 60 | At the Congressional level - abolish the Fed, or at least decriminalize competing currencies so people have a choice which one is more valuable to them. At the personal level - become self-sufficient while building one's community. agscrip.com can help bring local workers of all types together. | Aug 3, 2010 4:35 AM |
| 61 | I'm preparing for a complete collapse and a new 'dark ages'. | Aug 3, 2010 4:36 AM |
| 62 | I am forwarding as many articles that I can if they lend themselves to helping others understand what we are up against. I am encouraging those who stand against this man and his incessant demand for world recognition. | Aug 3, 2010 4:36 AM |
| 63 | I feel that this will not be resolved by peaceful means.. obama is setting us up for martial law. | Aug 3, 2010 4:39 AM |

| 64 | get ready for the inevitable | Aug 3, 2010 4:39 AM |
| 65 | Help the Tea Party movement grow bigger. | Aug 3, 2010 4:40 AM |
| 66 | well. i have said even before this KENYAN FRAUD got into our white house that HE and his MARXIST THUG PALS were PLANNING ANY EXCUSE TO DECLARE MARTIAL LAW. and i still say, and HOPE i am wrong that there will be NO ELECTIONS IN NOVEMBER for reasons stated above. my plan and advice to others is PREPARE FOR WAR. | Aug 3, 2010 4:43 AM |
| 67 | I am doing what I can by writing letters, talking to people, sending letters to the editor, sending emails, making contributions. That is the rub. It is so hard to tell what is a worthwhile cause, except for JPFO. | Aug 3, 2010 4:49 AM |
| 68 | Removal of BHO ASAP! He has not upheld his duty to protect and uphold the Constitution and the people within, the Americans. Everythign done is meant to harm, punish or destroy the very fabric of the American Culture. Removal of ALL progressive socialists as they are treasonous against the constitution. Repeal all Unconstitutional things done, replace with a True American Remove a couple of items from the Constiitution that are... against the intent of the document that holds and binds us together as one. The 16th repeal, 17th repeal, 27th repeal, health care repealed, financial reform repealed, all executive orders rescinded, audit the entire government, remove all duplicate services that the states offer, remove unconstitutional offices that are not the federal govt enumerated powers, All monies coined will be accounted for, removal of the Federal Reserve, we have no money now, pay the debts in as short of time as possible, reduce pay of all government officials and employees, they should not make more than their constitutents, all laws to be read aloud not by speed reader 4 times, no law to include port, no law to be more than 5 pages, no law to reference another but to supercede and puts its entire description in any new ones, any that affects the entire US must be voted on by the people, representative people from each state, the general public, when corruption exists, those from all states will remove, convict replace corrupters, term limits on all employees, and repretatives of the people. The people to have greater say so than just a vote, there is more but this is a good start. | Aug 3, 2010 4:59 AM |
| 69 | prepare now, arm up, train up, stock up... | Aug 3, 2010 5:04 AM |
| 70 | Tea Party- and Michelle Bachman for Pres. 2012 | Aug 3, 2010 5:16 AM |
| 71 | Make our congressmen and senators follow the constitution. first line in the constitution gives only congress legislative powers and only those written in Art 1 sec 8. | Aug 3, 2010 5:20 AM |
| 72 | Preparing for the worst and advising others to get more politically involved. | Aug 3, 2010 5:21 AM |
| 73 | I have spent my last dime on trying to send a constitutional candidate to washington. The people are sold out to materialism and entertainment that they refuse to educate themselves on how our country was founded and the incredible price that has been paid to give us liberty and freedom. Most of the people in Alabama would rather talk sports than our history. I personally have joined up with The Appleseed Project. We are training men to be riflemen again here in America. The most important part of the training is our presentation of the revolutionary war, (actually our war for independence.) | Aug 3, 2010 5:35 AM |
| 74 | NOT SURE | Aug 3, 2010 5:36 AM |
| 75 | Follow the money--it is interesting to note that most corporations give dollars to both sides of the aisle. If your favorite candidate is getting large dollar amounts from energy, or financial companies or military industrial groups, they are under suspicion. Vote them out. | Aug 3, 2010 5:38 AM |

| 76 | I recommend a) voting out all democrats; b) holding the GOP accountable to the Constitution & voting out any republicans who don't honor their Oath to the Constitution; supporting gun-rights groups such as GOA, JPFO & SAS; c) supporting political action groups such as DownSizeDC, FIJA, OathKeepers & 10th Amendment Center; & d) networking with all my contacts to alert them to the problems & solutions. My slogan: "Just Say NO to BAD LAW!" | Aug 3, 2010 5:44 AM |
| 77 | Pray for peace. Vote. Prepare for the worst. | Aug 3, 2010 5:44 AM |
| 78 | I recommend that every citizen become aware of our government process' and be very vigilant and watchful of what is being done to our once Great Country.To search out via the internet and talk radio for the truth which is out there and not believe the majority of media BS which is being fed to us.The BP oil spill and the handling of it is a prime example of the government inaction at the important events. The public is awakening and angry and there is still hope yet but its diminishing unless we start seeing the criminals brought to justice and greed and the corruption halted. | Aug 3, 2010 5:47 AM |
| 79 | Primarily to avoid the mainstream media, but also to read history in order to educate oneself about the principles upon which this country was founded. For what little good I believe it does, I also constantly mail, e-mail, fax, and phone my elected representatives and encourage others to do so. I encourage people with children to remove them from public schools and either home school them or put them in private schools. | Aug 3, 2010 5:48 AM |
| 80 | 1. Vote out all the Democrats. 2. Vote out all the RINOs. 3. Vote for conservatives who will promise to lower taxes. 4. Vote for conservatives who will vote for term limits. 5. Vote for conservatives who will repeal the tax code and replace it with National sales tax with no exemptions or execeptions. | Aug 3, 2010 6:01 AM |
| 81 | I plan to contribute to, and attempt to influence other to contribute to secessionist movements and take an active part in moving groups such as the Tea Party to move towards secession. | Aug 3, 2010 6:06 AM |
| 82 | Watch, wait, prepare for whatever outcome we may be forced to deal with. | Aug 3, 2010 6:12 AM |
| 83 | Become a prepper. Spend your money wisely NOW before your $$ won't go further than toilet paper. | Aug 3, 2010 6:17 AM |
| 84 | I really dont know I try to pay off all my debt and live on what I can pay for in cash. Stock up on weapons and ammo thats the advice Id give. Youll wake up one morning and all you have will be taken. I cant believe that I still have some friends that believe that congress will change things but there already powerless they pass what ever bill they want regardless of the Constitution or the wishes of the people. I tell people to wake the hell up! | Aug 3, 2010 6:30 AM |
| 85 | Be as self-sufficient as I possibly can be. Take the fewest actions possible which put me in contact with government agencies. Stockpile needed/barterable items. Diversify investments. | Aug 3, 2010 7:15 AM |
| 86 | Vote them out in NOvember and bear arms | Aug 3, 2010 7:19 AM |
| 87 | Pull a John Galt | Aug 3, 2010 8:09 AM |
| 88 | Obama should be recalled or his birth status fully investigated because it obvious he is unfit for his office. I plan on voting them all out when the time comes. Also plan on witnessing tough times ahead for all Americans. Help your neighbors and friends, pull together. | Aug 3, 2010 8:17 AM |
| 89 | Be ready for war, but hope for the vote | Aug 3, 2010 8:25 AM |

| 90 | Massive political efforts including efforts to ensure fair vote counting by avoiding computer doing any vote-"counting." Obedience to God is a basic and necessary aspect many people ignore at the peril of all. In our form of government our ability to vote causes us to be directly answerable to God for our government actions. We get what we deserve as a society. (see Deuteronomy chapter 28 - the chapter that the Bible was opened to during many colonial swearing in ceremonies of public officials. | Aug 3, 2010 8:29 AM |
| 91 | Should vote those out of office who don't protect the constitution of the united states. And if not this country is headed for a second civil war. | Aug 3, 2010 8:32 AM |
| 92 | Our federal government is out of control and voting new criminals into office will not fix the problem. Revolution or a return to the Articles of Confederation are the only answers. | Aug 3, 2010 9:31 AM |
| 93 | Sit tight, hold on, & vote my convictions. | Aug 3, 2010 9:34 AM |
| 94 | Vote this November and keep your powder dry. | Aug 3, 2010 9:59 AM |
| 95 | Stay vigilant. Pressure your lawmakers. And stockpile ammo; this is not going to be a peaceful time ahead. | Aug 3, 2010 10:21 AM |
| 96 | Nothing. It's already to late. The one world shadow government is already in control. Deal with it. unfortunatley there will be a bloody revolution which freedom will lose. | Aug 3, 2010 10:28 AM |
| 97 | I will take my que from Atlas Shrugged. i will not comply and will actively resist if confronted. I don't think Obama can muster the military force necessary to forcefully implement these communist policies if we resist. The government needs to fear the people again. You could force a change if some government agencies were brought to a grinding halt. | Aug 3, 2010 10:36 AM |
| 98 | Discretion is the better part of valour. | Aug 3, 2010 10:36 AM |
| 99 | preparing for the socio-enconmic colapse if the united states as we know it | Aug 3, 2010 10:39 AM |
| 100 | educate yourself | Aug 3, 2010 10:42 AM |
| 101 | I plan on waiting and watching, prepared for the day when it comes. I am prepared for my family to survive the turmoil without me. I plan on doing everything in my power once the hostilities have been started by the "government". I will not start the war, but I will damn sure finish it. In the end I think it will be the "government" that causes it to start. | Aug 3, 2010 11:09 AM |
| 102 | IF (a big if), there is yet time, all persons should make every effort to understand their local candidates for offices, and vote in those who have the best interests of the country and the citizens at heart. Besides that (which could be futile at this late stage), try to get personal and family interests in the best order possible. Be prepared for a very possible revolutionary situation, or at least a major depression and the aftermath which will last for years. Changes will need to come from local, and state levels in order to work. IF there is yet time for change.... which I doubt. | Aug 3, 2010 11:14 AM |
| 103 | Attend Tea Party functions, attend town halls and SPEAK UP!!! Vote. Prepare for the worst, both physically and mentally. Pray. | Aug 3, 2010 11:16 AM |
| 104 | I recommend education. I was once apathetic to the call for freedom. I took an Oath to the Constitution but had never been educated as to its meaning. I now know what the Constitution demands of government...it demands the government refrain from doing anything not specifically authorized by the Constitution no matter how 'good' the idea sounds. As to what I plan on doing, I will first support candidates who will fight for limited government. When that fails, I will ultimately be forced to flee or fight. Our backs are against the wall. | Aug 3, 2010 11:36 AM |

| 105 | I have a 14 year listing of students who have taken CCW classes from me plus a more "normal" collection of on-line acquaintances . We exchange information, ideas etc to stay informed about candidates - who to support and who to expose. I am a Tea Party supporter and a member of Oath Keepers. I will do what is necessary to protect the Constitution the Bill-of-Rights and the Rule-of-Law. | Aug 3, 2010 11:38 AM |
| 106 | VOTE! PRAY! Never stop pushing to get America back on the path designed by our Constitution. I think, at this stage, we all have to make sure we "PEACEFULLY" protest. The leftists are waiting for the first sign of violence to crackdown on our remaining freedoms. After what I've seen of these thugs to date, I really believe they are trying to manufacture a scenario where they can declare martial law. Never forget what our government did during Hurricane Katrina! They are certainly not above suspending our constitutional rights of self defense. They confiscated legally owned firearms, threatened citizens who didn't comply, left the population defenseless, and their "media propoganda machine" covered it all up. DO NOT TRUST THE GOVERNMENT! THEY ARE NOT ABOUT HELPING YOU! | Aug 3, 2010 11:44 AM |
| 107 | I am not sure what to recommend at this point. I agree with the authors that even taking back congress from the democrats will not stop Obamas agenda. He has at least two years to wreak havoc on our laws and regulate us into "slavery" under Obama's new order. My hope is states consider seceding from the union as a means to halt the continuation of this travesty. I would move to a state that seceded if necessary to continue the fight against this tyranny. | Aug 3, 2010 11:46 AM |

| 110 | Get out in November and VOTE. Become involved with your local tea party organization and get the word out to the sheeple who get their news and opinions solely from the leftist media. When I talk with most people about what is going on in DC the impression I get is that the average citizen has no idea of the direction the little foreign bastard and his minions are taking our beloved country. We need to educate the moribund silent majority and get them involved and get them to vote. | Aug 3, 2010 12:10 PM |
| 111 | Stop voting for the lesser of two evils. Vote for who you trully want. If we all do that we might have a chance to reverse the course. Voting for a third party candidate is not a waste, it might actually get their attention if the Libertarian Candidate made a desent show of it. Then possibly more would vote that way the next time. Finally, it might already be to late to stop the slow death spiral that was the USA. All I can do it talk with people about the issues, then sit back and pray. | Aug 3, 2010 12:12 PM |

Join the Nullification movement with The Tenth Amendment Center, Campaign For Liberty and move to a state that holds the conservative values I hold dear, as well as prepare for a falling economy and protect my family. Forward the emails I receive and ask others to join as well. | Aug 3, 2010 12:46 PM |
| 118 | I intend to vote against incumbents. This does not mean that I have to choose that person's opposing party. It DOES mean that I am tired of and fearful of the same old stuff. | 128 | In some ways, my family and I will continue doing what we have been: prepare and ensure that we have several places in which to take refuge, stay out of the major urban areas as much as possible, build up reserves of essential supplies including food and fuel, weapons, ammunition, and medicines, and encourage our neighbors, business partners, fellow Christians, and family to do likewise. Meanwhile we are seeking to make ourselves as inconspicuous as we can, both to political and bureaucratic officials, knowing that any targets are likely to be hit. We are doing less politically, because (1) it is a waste of time at this point, and (2) we have only limited resources and other things have higher priority. We intend to survive, and be as free as possible. | Aug 3, 2010 1:11 PM |

Marxist Based Left Wing Radicals now in power loathe these ideals as evils which must be marginalized and gradually snuffed out. They would like to eliminate all dissenting news media as well. I would recommend voting for mid-term candidates who would repeal and replace National Health Care, enact a Balanced Budget Amendment, and term limits for members of Congress, and to bring an end to Free Trade which has decimated our small businesses and manufacturing. | Aug 3, 2010 1:34 PM |

The ruling elite have decared war on the American people and their plan is to make us so poor we can not resist. Stock up on food, water, guns, ammo clothes, boots, tools. Just like the original American revolution there are 3% who will resist, reform a constitutional government and rebuild. Get away from major metropolitan areas. They will become violent death camps and burning war zones. | Aug 3, 2010 1:35 PM |

| 139 | Stored food, bottled water, guns and ammo, and a faith in God that He will sustain us if we try to be prepared. It's all in His hands anyway. | 147 | Somewhere I read the quote "There are 3 boxes that guarantee our freedom: the soap-box, the ballot box and the cartridge box." I continue to email, phone and fax my elected officials in Washington, DC and in my state capitol. I tell them what I believe they should be doing regarding enforcing the rule-of-law and honoring the Constitution. I continue working within the system; however, the system is broken. THE SYSTEM IS BROKEN. How can you work withing the system when it is broken? Good question. I recommend to others that they work within the system - petition the officials who are supposed to listen to us. Be active in demanding our country and its culture be preserved. I recommend to others that they prepare for hard times to come. That preparation includes emergency preparedness: food storage, fuel storage, water storage, etc. That preparation includes: guns and ammunition. The great possibility that the disruption of normal life is very likely, with great economic and social upheaval, with resulting riots and violence possible. I have no "Pollyanna" expectations. Second, vote all the progressives out of office. Third, charge all those in the administration and congress who violated the Law of the Land with crimes and remove them from office. Fourth, impeach all judges who have violated their oaths and remove them. Fifth, elect individuals who will abide by and enforce the Constitution. | 159 | As Moses said - "Let my people go". Check out the US counties electoral map for the last election. The map clearly demarcates in Red and Blue the borders of the new independent nations. The Red state would return to the principals of limited government elucidated in the fundamental Constitution. The Blue state would continue building on big government, "Fundamental Change" and quickly embrace European Socialism. Citizens of the old country would rapidly vote with their feet. My recommendation to my fellow countrymen is to prepare prepare prepare. 3 month food supply, 55 gal barrel of fuel, generator etc. etc. The separation is likely to be disruptive. | Aug 3, 2010 3:06 PM |

These self employed should engage in a massive barter economy, effectually reducing their tax burden, and de-funding the criminal ins DC. Additionally, I think all should educate themselves in the foundational philosophy, thus better understanding the purpose, and the supposed structure of our government. Finally, I think all freedom loving Americans should attend a marksmanship training session sponsored by the Revolutionary War Veterans Association's Appleseed Project. If we become a nation of Riflemen and women capable of hitting targets at 500 yards, we hopefully will not be called to demonstrate that ability. | Aug 3, 2010 3:10 PM |

We must support the alternatives: conservative talk radio and television; tea party organizations; internet sources; Constitutional friendly organizations and publications; etc. We need to vote for candidates sympathetic to the original intent of the Founding Fathers. We need to proudly show our position and talk about it with everyone we know. | Aug 3, 2010 3:15 PM |

Second, I recommend loading up on powder and shot. Store plenty of non perishable food, weapons and ammo. Formulate a survival plan with friends and family for a worst case scenerio. | Aug 3, 2010 3:29 PM |
| 165 | Another way out of all this is, after the November elections and the seating of different representatives and senators, the process of impeachment is utilized. His people are shrewd and are not above cheating and lying - they're probably reading this now - so it will be a heated battle. It must be engaged. It must be won. | Aug 3, 2010 3:35 PM |
| 166 | Make all possible efforts to regain control of the House and the Senate and obtain a veto proof majority. Failing that, push for state secession and prepare for the worst. | Aug 3, 2010 3:43 PM |
| 167 | First...for sure, vote out every supporter of President Obama's regime. Second...remove any long term government employees, regardless of political affiliation. The federal government has become so corrupt in the last 40 years, that they need to shown that they are not the imperial privileged who are exempt from consequences of their actions. Third...establish term limits for ALL federal, state, county & city government employees, abolish many of the laws and regulations which so blatantly undermine the health of the USA, and pass and enforce legislation which mandates that ANY and ALL laws passed by any governmental organization be applied to ALL members of the nation, including government employees. | Aug 3, 2010 3:44 PM |

| 173 | I am preparing for what, [in a premonition I had in May, 1985] will be the worse civil war in the history of the world. I stated then, 1985, that within 25 years there was going to be, on sovereign American soil, a war in which the Judea-Christian faction of Americans was going to rise up to defend their beliefs and to defend the Constitution/Bill of Rights as presented by our forefathers in the founding of this country. Many fought and died then, and many on all sides will die this time as "WE the PEOPLE" lay claim to our country again. | Aug 3, 2010 4:15 PM |
| 174 | I have already implemtened my plan, a few years ago during the bush admin, I would tell those who are concerned to get 100% involved in the day to day running of your nation, we've sat on the couch and allowed the fed to run the nation how ever they thought best for far, far too long now, see what its gotten us, this exact scenario, BAD. Get involved locally, sate wide, federally, use the internet, the phone, the US mail, watch the news and the cable networks for anything and everything that you can , be informed, not ignorant, we've been the silent majority for long enough, its time to trim the tree of all the dead wood and fertilize the base with people that are in it for the nation, not for themsleves, if you went to congress or the house for profit, then I say your time is done. | Aug 3, 2010 4:17 PM |

| 182 | obviously we have to vote and contact our elected officials about what is going on and we also have to put pressure on the conservatives in our gov't to go after & GET acorn & seiu & any other organizations that are involved in voter fraud before our votes mean NOTHING. One thing that many people don't realize is that Obama has allies in both the democrat & republican parties whose motivations are NOT to do whats best for Americans but to do best for themselves both financially and in relation to POWER. Many republicans speak good words but then do nothing because they are also in step w/ Obama. Without a constitutional amendment enforcing term limits on power hungry politicians, we will be plagued with this for many years.....Raphael | Aug 3, 2010 4:52 PM |

| 187 | Voting out the incumbents with people that will adhere to the Constitution, but I think that many elected officials have violated their oath of office, the Constitution and even committed treason. Many of them should be impeached, some should be tried for treason. Since these subversive elitists have been wrecking our Republic, I encourage everyone that I know to prepare for a crash or "hard landing" by storing ammo for self-protection and hunting as well as as much storable food as possible. People must take responsibility for their families, and prepare for the hard times ahead. | Aug 3, 2010 5:16 PM |

| 196 | Try to inform my friends by sending them info that will increase their awareness of what is going on. | 199 | I try to open the eyes of the 'unbelievers' (Obamabots) about the principles that this Republic was founded on, but I am very discouraged about what the typical member of the 'sheeple' think (that everything will be "all right"). Arm yourself, train, and be prepared to kill for your nation. And don't be afraid to die to save Our Republic for our children and their children. | Aug 3, 2010 6:35 PM |
| 200 | We need acomplete house cleaning including congress, senate, presidency and the judiciary. And this doesn't mean simply changing out the current democrats for republicans who will do exactly the same thing. We need to get back to citizen leadership and destroy the whole institution of the professional politician: strict term limits should be imposed; all retirement for elected officials should be done away with, retroactively; failure of elected officials to meet the standards of conduct should carry automatic prison sentences; the IRS should be abolished and the "Fair Tax" instituted. The first three layers of bureaucracy should be replaced. We must get away from the notion that the so-called two-party system actually gives us a choice- both major parties are essentially the same in the results the bring. | Aug 3, 2010 6:42 PM |

| 202 | Vote out all anti-gun politicians such as Obama. Anyone who wants to disarm the working class is an enemy of the working class! | Aug 3, 2010 6:48 PM |
| 203 | Speak up by emailing, writing and calling your representatives on the local and federal level. Vote! Not just in the big elections but in every election even the one's for dog catcher. Talk to anyone who will listen about what is happening and how important it is to do something now! We can stop this if we act now and not sit back and wait until it is too late. | Aug 3, 2010 6:52 PM |
| 204 | Plan for inflation, deflation, and civil unrest. Store food and gas if you can. Buy precious medals if possible. Recognize that the civil unrest will not be spontaneous but will be organized. Prepare for the government to become more totalitarian with civil unrest. Take whatever the the main stream media says with a large bag of salt. Find other sources for news. | Aug 3, 2010 6:56 PM |
| 205 | Prayer by each of those that belong to God through and in Christ Jesus, this first, last and always; praying intercessory prayer for the United States of America and His Church and for those who are Lucifer's Earthly Legions that they turn from their wicked ways and in so doing avoid the Hell to which they are dooming themselves. | Aug 3, 2010 7:04 PM |

| 208 | I recommend the individual states to secede, plain and simple. Dump the dollar and establish some other currency. Stop all the wars and supporting the countries who are always screaming for war such as Israel. States won't be able to do this since it's inception and ability to do this comes from the federal govt. If Vermont or Arizona want to become sovereign states again, I like the idea and as a Texan I recommend we return to being a republic and an independent country, dismissing the state status completely. | Aug 3, 2010 7:44 PM |
| 209 | In a general sense, I plan on self-reliance in every venue of life, covered with much prayer to a higher power, a "REAL MESSIAH". As fair warning, I'd also strongly suggest you do not go down range in my area, when the doo-doo hits the fan, and I'm afraid it is coming. I'm keeping my head down and powder dry. | Aug 3, 2010 7:44 PM |

Prepare for rising crime, civil unrest and worse. 4. Keep close relationships with like minded people. 5. Beans, band-aids and bullets if necessary. | Aug 3, 2010 9:18 PM |
| 218 | 1 Prepare for a civil war. 2 Try to prevent a civil war by: 3 Try to educate the poorly informed public regarding fundamental American History, why this is of paramount importance to their welfare, and how the federal government is destroying their freedoms and rights guaranteed by the Constitution. 4 Encourage support of such organizations as Oath Keepers and JPFO. 5 Careful use of the Internet to spread information denied us by the national media. 6 encourage people to read books by such authors as Judge Andrew Napolitano. 7 Donate funds to such organizations as JPFO so they can spread the truth. | Aug 3, 2010 9:18 PM |

| 221 | I will continue to use facebook as an outlet to inform others of what is going on. I may even make myself obnoxious in my efforts to get the Social/academic elite and the chronically stupid who still support "El Presidente" Obama to wake up and smell the ether before he puts the to sleep. I am a retired veteran. Remember this....."against all enemies foriegn and domestic". | Aug 3, 2010 9:45 PM |
| 222 | Work the system - engage Americans normally outside the political process by educating and getting them to the polls. Don't elect Democate/lite Republicans. Support pro 2nd amendment candidates. Look for "Tea Party" philosophy candidates - pro-Constitution. | Aug 3, 2010 9:49 PM |
| 223 | Elect a new government (if thats even possible) and hope for the best. | Aug 3, 2010 9:53 PM |
| 224 | The Citizens of this Republic need to study the Constitution and LEARN its meaning for themselves. Do not allow the "Elite"to stop you, or impede your learning process. It doesn't matter if they are elected/appointed officials, government school teachers, college professors, news media. Once you have learned what the Founders intended, then put those principles in to action. | Aug 3, 2010 10:22 PM |
| 225 | I would recommend that everyone stay armed, monitor every move of all who would destroy our Country very closely. Be ready at a moments notice to do what must be done. And think, and think again, before hand. Know what you must do well before hand, and know why you are doing it, so that you don't lose your nerve in the early stages, and give up, before the battle's won. If it comes to a Revolution, it promises to be very ugly! | Aug 3, 2010 10:31 PM |

| 227 | Read about the history of our United States... What has been sacrificed by our Patriot Citizenry, and what has been done to ensure our Liberties and our Freedoms! If someone gives their lives, for a cause of which Our "United States" stands for..Which is accordingly to secure Liberty and Freedom...It should be looked upon with scrutiny because of the cost in life and fortunes. If investigated enough throughout our nation's history... It is a forgone and inevitable conclusion that People do not give their lives and fortunes for a frivolous ideal or creed in which they do not believe in... And Our History against tyranny of any kind ensures this conclusion...That we have continuously fought against evil and tyranny! For In G-D We Trust! | Aug 3, 2010 10:40 PM |

| 230 | First examine your own life to be sure you in tune with the Almighty. During the Founding of the nation, the populace first experienced a period of self-examination and striving for virtue--public and personal. Then we will have to try for a political solution--a revolution without violence. We will have no choice but to resist however we can--with civil disobedience. Once again, no violence. Violence is only justified if violence is perpetrated on the population. Such as the death camps of the Germans in World War II. | Aug 3, 2010 10:53 PM |

| 234 | I plan to become as self-sufficient as possible. I recommend that people reduce their debt as much and as quickly as possible. I think it is prudent to stockpile food, water, precious metals, some cash, guns and ammunition. I think everyone should be able to live at least one month on what they have stored in their home, without electricity. Which means they need an alternate heat source not dependent on electricity, both for warmth and for cooking, and enough fuel for it to last at least a month. The more self-sufficient you can be, the better. | Aug 3, 2010 11:29 PM |

Assume that you are under surveillance at all times, including (or perhaps especially) when you are online. This is not paranoia; rather, it is the craft of a resistance warrior in an occupied land. Be an actor, always on stage. Determine what the authorities want to see, i.e. meek and compliant sheep, and learn to play that role. Show them what they want to see. If it happens to be the truth, that's convenient and perhaps less stressful. But always and everywhere, show them what they want to see. I also tell them to prepare for a real economic downturn in the near future;by saving some cash, stocking some food and supplies and being mentally and physically prepared for a breakdown of government. Better to prepare for the worst and work and pray for the best than to be unprepared when the worst happens. | Aug 5, 2010 6:05 PM |
| 286 | I am trying to make sure all my friends and relatives are registered to vote and I am speaking my mind about the horrible things this administration is doing. It's hard sometimes as I work with a ton of Democrats who think Obama's doing a good job. Southern democrats are really not paying attention to whats going on. Some of them hate the Republicans so much that they're willing to take him at any cost. The GOP has GOT to do some work on their party. | 313 | Under the current administration I am not sure we can turn the tide in this political environment. We must be prepared to go against our government with force if necessary and we must do it very controlled and organized and I personally tell all the people I feel I can trust and that are interested that we must vote the offending politicians, no matter what party they belong to, out of office. I recommend that we get rid of the 2 party system and elect people on their stand and their merits not on which party they belong to. We have to do this to save this nation. | Aug 8, 2010 2:53 PM |

| 316 | Vote for only third party and independent candidates, give money to third party and independent candidates and to organizations like JPFO, Libertarian party, Constitutional law party, ect. Run for political office as third party, or independent. Buy DVD political documentaries made by Alex Jones, William Lewis, JPFO, Ect and show them and make as many DVD copies as possible to give to citizens to watch. Boycott the mainstream media and that includes most so called "conservative" talk radio. Get your news off the internet from sites like Prisonplanet.com, JPFO.org, globalresearch.ca, globaleconomic.blogspot.com, lewrockwell.com, collapse.net, inflation.us, restoretherepublic.com, ect. Read books. Buy gold and silver, stockpile all the food you can, buy firearms, and all the ammo you can. Stockpile all the tools and clothing you think you will need for a decade maybe more. Buy medicine and vitamins. Stock pile razor blades, soap, condoms, ect that will be in high demand trade goods in a barter economy and yet will not spoil with age. Stockpile non-genetically modified seeds and learn to grow food so you can grow a victory garden with a fair chance of success if it comes down to it. If you can move to a small community in the country side with an adequate water table get a well, solar, geothermal, and wind power, get off the grid. Plant fruit, nut trees, and grape vines. Raise chickens, rabbits, pigs, and/or a milk cow or goat. Besides learning to grow food, learn to shoot tacticaly, good shooting is alot more than just markmanship. Take a real martial arts class and learn to defend yourself in hand to hand combat without the luxury of a firearm, stay in shape. Try to build a network of fellow political activists, survivalist, patriots, friends, ect because the only chance we got is working together. And remember to have a life, have fun, enjoy the beauty and pleasure of this world. Martial law may come tomorrow or it may never come, don't give up your life over what may happen. | Aug 8, 2010 7:42 PM |

This, after all, is what creates jobs and gets the economy going again. | Aug 9, 2010 1:11 AM |

| 329 | Become more active in politics by writing my representatives in congress and senate. We also need to flood the white house with letters, emails, and faxes regarding key issues. And if they don't listen, vote the bums out. We also need to hold the supreme court accountable for their actions, justices CAN be recalled. | Aug 10, 2010 8:57 PM |
| 330 | As the men in America are COWARDS, I can expect no help from anyone. I will relocate to a wilderness area in the greater northwest US and attempt to survive in the wilderness as that will be the last freedom before the annihilation of all Americans by the New World Order and the SS troops awaiting orders to do so. | Aug 11, 2010 12:38 AM |
| 331 | Vote, vote and vote. Washington and the Congress have failed and is continuing to fail the electorate. The only unarmed response is to replace the Pelosi's, Dodd's, Reid's and especially the only Barney Frank. | Aug 11, 2010 2:36 AM |
| 332 | i make no recommendation of action, specifically. i am not studied enough to do so. however, the current govt. is out of control, and actually has been for years, slowly and sometimes not so slowly creeping into our lives at every turn. if this can be done peacefully, that would be the best solution. i fear it is no longer an option. perhaps the states have a chance if all or majority of states "hang together". i am more than ready for a violent correction, but that can only have a chance of success with clear and knowledgeable guidance, and an approach that would bring a large body of the people together at the same time for the same reason. "we must all hang together, or surely we all will hang seperately"- ben franklin | Aug 11, 2010 5:43 PM |

| 334 | That is the million dollar question. I have asked this question and been asked this by countless amounts of people. What do we do? The fact of the matter is that first people are going to have to pray to God and ask for Mercy and Grace. Secondly some group or groups of people are going to have to stand up and unite. Constantly I hear people say, 'I would be willing to fight the government, or I will help volunteer, and I just want to kick Washington in the backside'. In addition they get so frustrated because they know in their heart and soul what is inevetably coming around the bend if they allow it this to continue. To further add to the frustration people have no idea where to start. Never have I heard such an outrage to the actions of Washington. The media will say otherwise. Lastely the course of action I plan on is to find every politician that has voted for laws lazily, and vote them out, regardless of political ofiliation. Next I refuse to write to the Washington politicians because I believe they have already scwreded up to much, they had their chance in congress, and they obviously are blatantly refusing to listen. This means that they have removed themselves from the people that voted them in. In conclusion wait until something presents itself that allows me to help. Answer this question. | Aug 11, 2010 6:21 PM |
| 335 | Unfortunately, there are too many variables in play at this time to recommend a "battle plan," other than "load up and stock up." | Aug 11, 2010 7:36 PM |

| 339 | 1. A federal income tax revolt, where we all pay our federal income taxes to our state, county or city government. Keep our money out of the hands of Congress and the president. We are through as a superpower. when the Soviet Union collapsed, The United States was the only military superpower left standing. Today, the cost of being a military superpower has finally caught up with us. Even under the seemingly liberal Obama Administration, our rights and liberties are in peril. In other words, divided we stand, united we fall. | Aug 12, 2010 10:31 PM |

I am also insuring that both I and my fellow citizens are armed and have a base amount of ammo. | 343 | Elections. Also the elections have to be watch to make sure votes are not stolen like they were before. Congress needs to answer why they allowed Obama to do all of this with telling the american people. It will take God's help to help stop what is happening. | Aug 13, 2010 7:30 AM |

| 345 | I intend to work toward educating the members of BOTH parties. We have too many Democrats, too many Republicans and not enough Americans, until that idea bears fruit the downward slide will continue. Both parties turn a blind eye to our Constitution, depending on who's ox is getting gored, this must stop. If I as an American expect my fellow Americans to stand up for my rights, I as an American must also stand up for the rights of other Americans, no matter how much I may disagree with them. | Aug 14, 2010 5:39 PM |

| 347 | I have made it a point in daily conversation to speak out against this administration in even the most innocuous ways. In casual conversation with a cashier or with a person I happen to meet. I will use almost any pretense to make a casual remark opposing this administration. Secondly, I focus my defense purchases on components; lead, powder, brass and spare parts. I have increased my participation in shooting matches and carry an open sidearm wherever it can be legally done so. Where firearms are not allowed I make it a point to mount an empty holster as a "statement". | Aug 15, 2010 5:33 AM |

| 350 | Prepare as best you can with like minded friends and family. Money, food, supplies,ammo, survival preparedness. | 351 | I am and have been preparing for a worst case scenario to take place in this country whether it be from a legitimate enemy or one orchestrated by those in power. Many of my fellow citizens that I speak with regularly have a great distrust of the government now. One must prepare to provide basic items necessary to sustain life without the conveniences we now take for granted ie.(water, food, defense). Like-minded people should pull resources immediately in preparation of full economic collapse, martial law or worse. | Aug 16, 2010 6:50 PM |

| 355 | Use the power of the vote to remove those too comfortably ensconced in what amounts to life long employment as elected officials. The Peoples' needs are best served by those who are NOT using their time working on raising funds for or being re-elected, therefore , term limits, with a streamlined recall procedure for those who feel they have nothing to lose by not serving their constituents' need and serving their own, is needed. | Aug 17, 2010 4:36 PM |
